

Willowbank Launches Fall Lecture Series – 27 Sept. to 22 Nov. 2025
Expert Talks on Intersections in Heritage Conservation

Fall 2025 Lecture Series Schedule: Select Saturday mornings from 10 am - 12 noon:

Saturday 27 Sept. – Nathan Schafer (Hamilton): Fine woodworker, and valued Willowbank instructor, talking about craft knowledge and social sustainability.

Saturday 4 Oct. – Mallory Wilson (Montreal): 2018 Jacques Dalibard prize winner, and founder of the remarkable nonprofit Entremise, talking about heritage conservation and social justice.

Saturday 18 Oct. – Brian MacKay-Lyons (Halifax): One of Canada's most brilliant and celebrated architects, talking about contemporary design in historic settings.

Saturday 1 Nov. – Hussain Ali (Lahore): Aga Khan Foundation specialist, documenter of the Lahore Fort UNESCO World Heritage site, talking about recording 'place' and recording 'place-making'.

Saturday 8 Nov. – Mark Laird (Toronto): The world's foremost landscape historian, and restorer of some of the world's greatest gardens, talking about botanical art of the past, and environment today.

Saturday 15 Nov. – Jean Dendy (Toronto): Art conservator at the Royal Ontario Museum, with previous experience in the U.S. and Quebec, talking about art conservation and architectural conservation.

Saturday 22 Nov. – Brett Sherlock (Niagara-On-The-Lake): International Consultant, Christie's, former Board Member of the Gardiner Museum and The Niagara Foundation, sharing stories from the international world of auctions.

Join the conversation!

$25 per lecture | $150 full series. Reserve your spot, e-transfer to willowbank@willowbank.ca (please confirm by email). Tickets also at the door – advance purchase recommended.

Location: Bright Parlour at Willowbank - 14487 Niagara Parkway, Queenston. www.willowbank.ca