

Lidjia Biro

I am a retired secondary school teacher, currently a wine writer and an environmental activist (founding member of Seniors for Climate in Niagara), I am a good organizer, communicator, and team player. I have sharp analytical skills and view things through an ethical lens. Although a senior, I seem to have endless energy and determination. My interest in this committee is to bring a "green" perspective.